YOKE confirm the appointment of Richard Oldknow as Vice President – Sales, EMEA Region.

YOKE Industrial Corp of Taiwan, a world-class manufacturer of Lifting Accessories and Fall Protection Equipment, is excited to announce that Richard Oldknow will return to the YOKE family, as Vice President – Sales EMEA Region. Richard will report directly to the Board at YOKE's Taichung City HQ, Taiwan.

Richard's career of over 28 years in the industrial lifting components market has focused on roles strengthening the distribution channels of engineered lifting products. Richard will work with the YOKE sales team to continue to strengthen the relationships with our channel partners in the EMEA region, and further develop our product and training offering.

Richard was also involved in working with major OEM's to drive specification through to the distribution channel, and further will work with the YOKE NPD (New Products Development) team to develop new products to enhance safety of all end users.

The team at YOKE welcomes Richard back to our family, and we trust this appointment will help with our vision to continue to build a world-class company in the manufacturing of quality products, since our original founding in July 1985.

We trust you will add your welcome to that of everyone at YOKE.

Mr. Steven Hong
Chairman, YOKE
Date: July 11th, 2016
